The Unfinished Church - New Podcast

Next Episode, Thursday, Jul 28
Willie Jennings

Hosted by United Methodist Bishops La'Trelle Easterling, Michael McKee, and Gregory Palmer, the podcast is a place for dialogue, learning, and transformation as people of faith coming together to build a world in which racial prejudice has no power.

Episode #6 - Growing in Cultural Humility

Yale professor, poet and prophet, Willie Jennings, joins the bishops in exploring the idea of decentering whiteness and how a posture of justice, mercy, and humility compels us to dismantle systems of oppression so that all may be free.

Tune in every other Thursday on Apple Podcasts, Google Podcasts, Anchor, Spotify or wherever you listen to podcasts.

Prepare/Enrich Facilitator Training

Tuesday, August 16 Pecometh Retreat Center

Becoming a certified Prepare/Enrich Facilitator provides you with the core knowledge and skills to confidently utilize Prepare/Enrich's proven assessment and feedback resources to foster resilient relationships and marriages.

This training will take place at the Riverview Retreat Center at Pecometh on August 16. For more information or to register, visit <https://www.pecometh.org/clergy-excellence>

Ministry Administration in Context

Wed., Aug. 17 - Thurs. Aug. 18 Pecometh Retreat Center

The ministry of administration can look very different from context to context. Gather with other clergy to review the basics of administration as defined by the Book of Discipline, and explore how ordering the life of the church may look different depending on:

- Church membership size
- Number of staff (or no staff)
- Church structure and culture (established church vs new church start, etc)

Plus, we will offer a session about serving in extension ministry and appointments beyond the local church, as well as how Deacons relate to the local church.

This program will take place at the Riverview Retreat Center at Pecometh on August 17 - August 18. For more information or to register, visit <https://www.pecometh.org/clergy-excellence>

Seeking Hammond Organ & Pulpit Chairs

Buttonwood United Methodist Church

Buttonwood UMC is seeking to grow its music ministry. If there are any churches with a Hammond Organ that is not being used, we would love to get it. We are also looking for any comfortable pulpit chairs that are not being used. Please contact us at 302-328-9611 or email to Pastor Sean M. Lee, slee@seanmlee.org or von2d@aol.com.

New MAP and You

Methodist ACTION Program

www.mapde.org

From the Desk of the Executive Director . . .

Many thanks to Rev. Grant Johnson for providing last week's MAP article!

This past Thursday I attend the Northeast Quarterly Meeting of the Bread for the World organization. The Northeast Director, Cheri Andes, is familiar to the MAP Board, and attended our July meeting (more on that later).

Bread for the World is an extremely well-organized advocacy group. Its programs are easy for congregations to implement in standing for food access justice and other hunger-related issues. The home page, bread.org, will lead you to a wealth of information about the organization. However, on the following page is described a means for congregations to take tangible advocacy action around both domestic and international hunger issues:

<https://ol.bread.org/>

The action described on the above page is called the "Offering of Letters," and it has been extremely effective in advocacy campaigns. Please consider whether your own congregation would be willing to participate.

In addition, individuals may use the Bread for the World action network links to send emails to their own representatives concerning domestic and global food access justice issues through the TAKE ACTION buttons on same page (scroll down). There is no "take action" button for the Farm Bill, but you can find a wealth of information about the impact of the bill by clicking the LEARN MORE button. I encourage you to become familiar with this information. When an action button becomes available, you then will be well-informed.

At the recent MAP Board meeting, Cheri Andes announced that Bread for the World is looking for a new generation of Pen-Del clergy who would like to be trained in bringing justice ministries to their congregations. Please contact Rev. Grant Johnson at Immanuel UMC Townsend or Cheri Andes at Bread for the World for more information.

Also, I want to include a brief note about the upcoming primary and general elections. Please take the time to become familiar with the views of the candidates before voting. Anyone of voting age who is not yet registered should now be able to register and vote on the same day, thanks to legislation recently passed by the General Assembly. In addition, Vote by Mail legislation was passed; both bills are awaiting the governor's signature at this writing. More information will be forthcoming.

Please remember to check the MAP Facebook page for information about advocacy and justice actions available in Delaware (enter Methodist Action Program in the Facebook search box).

Churches Offer Assistance to Afghan Refugees

The deteriorating situation in Afghanistan is a humanitarian crisis that has now left upwards of 550,000 Afghans internally displaced. In the strength of the Creator of us all, we are called to walk alongside those who have been persecuted and displaced, to provide a space of love and safe refuge for all people in harm's way, and to advocate for peacemakers, relief workers, and policymakers, and all voices of faith, that we may have the courage, grace, integrity, and strength to expand a broader path of welcome and safety for all who seek refuge.
